GENERAL AFFIDAVIT.

State of Tennessee, County of Cumberland, ss.

In the matter of Pension Claim 304,845 of Eunice E. Minnie, mother of James N. Minnie

ON THIS 5th day of March A. D. 1885, personally appeared before me a

Clerk of the County Court in and for the aforesaid County, duly authorized to administer oaths

Fenton J. Brown aged 59 years, a resident of Crossville

in the County of Cumberland and State of Tennessee whose Post Office address is Crossville Tennessee and Andrew J. Goss aged 53 years, a resident of Crossville

in the County of Cumberland and State of Tennessee

whose Post Office address is Crossville Tennessee

well known to me to be reputable and entitled to credit, and who, being duly sworn, declared in relation to aforesaid case as follows:

That they have lived as near neighbors to the claimant and family for a number of years. (probably about 12 to 14 years) that said family are in needy circumstances that they derive their living from tilling a small piece of mountain land. The husband of the claimant is not able to get his living by manual labor by reason of chronic liver complaint and that the claimant has to do a great deal of the labor in the field owing to her husband being unable to work. We have heard the claimant speak of the loss sustained by her in helping to support the family when her son James N. Minnie died who was in the service of the United States. We know these facts from having lived as neighbors to the said claimant & family.

They further declare that they have no interest in said case and are not concerned in its prosecution.
